

Endesa to build green hydrogen plant in Spain

Read the full news

Frames Group and Twinning Energy deepens relation on hydrogen mobility

Frames Group B.V. has acquired half stakes in Twinning Energy B.V. to strengthen their cooperation on the hydrogen mobility solutions such as green hydrogen generation. Both companies are based on the Netherlands's. Frames Group manufactures and supplies renewable energy systems while develops emission-neutral energy concepts. "We are pleased to be able to bring Twinning Energy and Frames together", states Jordi Zonneveld, General Manager at Frames Group. Both companies have an established and long-standing reputation in the hydrogen sector.

Five new members join AquaVentus association

The AquaVentus association, which aim to use climate-friendly hydrogen technology, has been joined by five new members. AquaVentus aims to add 10 GW offshore power generation capacity to produce one million tonnes of green hydrogen by 2035. The five new members are Hydrogenious LOHC Technologies (develops applications for hydrogen transport and storage), Avia (wind farm company) LNG Terminal (the LNG terminal operator German), Cuxport (the port logistics company) and Görg (the commercial law firm).

Loop Energy and ECUBES sign offtake agreement

Read the full news

Novatek and Uniper develop hydrogen value chain

Read the full news

PowerCell receives order for MS-100 fuel cell system from the University of Texas

PowerCell Sweden AB received an order for an MS-100 fuel cell system from the University of Texas, US. The system will be part of a fuel cell-based solution for stationary power developed jointly with Hitachi ABB Power Grids. The system will be delivered by mid-2021. It also received another order from a leading European construction equipment manufacturer. The system is expected to be delivered by the end of the first half of 2021.

Saudi Arabia and France to cooperate on green hydrogen

Read the full news

The world first double-decker hydrogen bus hit Aberdeen roads

Read the full news