

Chile establishes the National Hydrogen Institute

Read the full news

England aims for 4k electric and hydrogen buses

Read the full news

Hexagon Purus and Certarus signs long term hydrogen solutions

Hexagon Purus has signed a multi-year agreement with Certarus Ltd worth around US$ 85 million, with an initial order for Smartstore® hydrogen distribution modules, with an estimated value of US$ 3.2 million. Deliveries are set to start between Q3 and Q4 this year.

Port of Açú and Fortescue to explore 300MW hydrogen plant in Brazil

Read the full news

Raghu Kilambi becomes CEO of Clean Power Capital

Clean Power Capital Corp. has appointed Mr Raghu Kilambi as the CEO and President. He is currently CEO and CFO of PowerTap Hydrogen Fueling Corp., an investee company of Clean Power Capital Corp. Mr Joel Dumaresq, who served as the CEO of Clean Power, has resigned and will continue to serve as an interim CFO.

Southern Chile can provide 13% of the global green hydrogen supply

Read the full news